

Braidwood Emergency Service Disaster Agency (E.S.D.A.)

Communication Tools For The Braidwood Community

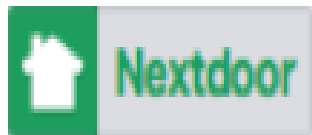

Braidwood E.S.D.A. utilizes several communication tools as well as services from the Will County Emergency Management Agency to help share information with the Braidwood community. Information including, but not limited to:

- Emergency & Non-Emergency Notifications
- Preparedness Tips & Reminders
- Weather Updates including severe weather watches & warnings, local forecasts from the NWS, weather safety tips, etc.
- Local traffic advisories including emergency & planned road closures such as traffic accidents, road hazards, wires down, parades, honorary escorts, etc.

FACEBOOK

www.facebook.com/braidwoodesda

NEXTDOOR

Email & Push Notifications Via The Nextdoor App

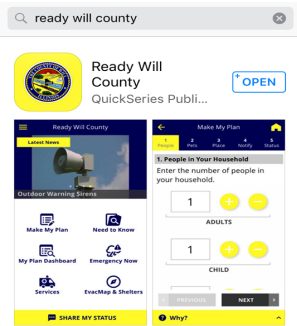

www.nextdoor.com/agency/braidwood-emergency-service-disaster-agency

Will County EMA Emergency Notification System/Reverse 9-1-1

Most traditional/publicly available landline phone numbers are automatically imported into the system, but CELLULAR PHONE NUMBERS or UNLISTED TRADITIONAL LANDLINE PHONE NUMBERS ARE NOT. Get signed up today by clicking on the link provided. Be sure to read through the details on how the reverse 9-1-1 system is used and what it is used for.

www.willcountyema.org/emergency-notification-sign-up

Ready Will County App

Download the Ready Will County App today to build your emergency plan, find emergency services and shelters, as well as access to important emergency routes!

www.readydl.com/ready-will-county

Disclaimer Braidwood E.S.D.A. does not make any guarantee as to the validity of information posted from third party sources. Braidwood E.S.D.A. volunteer make every attempt to provide up to date information, however, there is no guarantee that real-time emergency information will be available via. any source. Braidwood E.S.D.A. assumes no liability for loss, damage, inquiries and/or death due to a delay in emergency notifications. Always have multiple ways to receive emergency notifications.